

B.A.(Philosophy)

PROGRAM OUTCOMES

- A. This course will introduce students to new concepts of Philosophy discipline.
- B. These concepts will enhance the conceptual learning and understanding of basic concepts used in Philosophy.
- C. This course will contribute in enriching the vocabulary and scientific temperament of the students.
- D. This course provide comprehensive understanding of Indian and western Philosophy.

COURSE OUTCOMES

BA part 1

Western Philosophy

This paper will introduce students new concepts of Philosophy discipline. The course is designed to incorporate all key concepts of Philosophy to develop keen insights to distinguish commonsense knowledge and Philosophical knowledge.

Indian Philosophy

This paper introduces the Indian philosophical sects and their principles prevalent in the Indian knowledge tradition. Useful in relation to civil service examination and spiritual achievement.

BA Part 2

Ethics

This paper provides knowledge about morality, conduct etc for the best social behavior.

Logic

This paper serves to equip students with the skills of logical reasoning, which helps them in various competitive examinations

BA Part 3

Philosophy of Religion

This paper provides knowledge about Religion, tolerance, causes of religious conversion etc.

Social and Political Philosophy

This paper provides knowledge of society. We can say it is socio aspect of Philosophy. From this paper student get knowledge about democracy, justice etc.

Problems of Philosophy

In this paper, considering the basis of philosophical problems instead of sect wise and philosopher wise approach. Here the task is to develop a comparative and integrated viewpoint at different points in the students, which is useful for Civil Services Examination and UGC NET Examination.

M.A. (Philosophy)

Program outcomes

- A. This course will introduce students to finer concepts of Philosophy discipline.
- B. These courses will further enhance the conceptual learning and understanding of the concept in Philosophy.
- C. This course will contribute in enriching the vocabulary and scientific temperament of the students and prepare them for further studies and research.
- D. This course provides comprehensive understanding of Indian and Western Philosophy with comparative study.

Course outcomes

MA 1st and 2nd semester:

History of Western Philosophy:

In this paper, students get knowledge about great philosophers of Western philosophy like Plato, Aristotle etc.

MA 1st and 2nd semester:

History of Indian Philosophy

This question paper gives specific reference to the principles related to philosophical sects prevalent in Indian knowledge tradition, which is useful for Civil Services Examination and UGC NET Examination.

MA 1st and 2nd semester:

Comparative Religions

In this paper, we study many religions as Hinduism, Muslims, Christianity, Judaism and similarities between them. It is very relevant for all of us to know about all religions and understand the common sense of all religions. It will increase our cultural harmony. It is very important for IAS, PCS, UGC NET examinations.

MA 1st and 2nd semester:

Ethics

In this paper, we come to know about what is right and what is good? What is duty? We will be able to differentiate between duty, right and good. Many Western thinkers' opinions are on moral values. It is very useful for students who are interested to participate in competitive examinations like IAS, PCS, and other. It is very important for UGC NET.

MA 1st and 2nd semester:

Philosophy of Immanuel Kant

Kant was a great philosopher and thinker of Western philosophy. He gave comprehensive and critical knowledge about rationalism and empiricism.

MA 1st and 2nd semester:

Philosophy of Shankaracharya

In this paper, an attempt is made to assimilate the Advaita Vedanta sect of Indian philosophy through primary sources and secondary sources related to Acharya Shankar, which is useful for Civil Services Examination and UGC NET Examination.

MA 3rd and 4th semester:

Contemporary Western Philosophy

From this paper student make their concept logical and scientific.

MA 3rd and 4th semester:

Contemporary Indian Philosophy

In this paper we study many contemporary Indian philosophers as Swami Vivekanand, Mahatma Gandhi, Eqbal, Tagore etc. Very interesting and important chapter has been discussed in this paper. It is also very important for IAS, PCS, UGC NET examinations. Not only for students but also it is useful for all people who have interest in Indian philosophy and culture.

Dr Ram Kumar Singh, Asst. Prof (Philosophy)

Dr Amit Kumar Mishra, Asst. Prof (Philosophy)

Dr Indu Prakash Singh, Asst. Prof (Philosophy)

H.N.B. Govt. PG. College Naini Prayagraj.

प्रध्याय
हेमवती नंदन बहुमुष्ण राष्ट्रीय
स्नातकोत्तर महाविद्यालय
नैनी-प्रयागराज