

B.A. (Political Science)

Program Outcomes :-

After the completion of three year course the student is expected to exhibit a fairly detailed understanding of the basic ideas, concepts, institutions, processes of politics and government at national regional and international levels. Besides the program has ability enhancing course with provide the learner opportunities to explore subjects beyond the discipline of political science. Further he would be able to appreciate and cultivate.

- (i) Values, ethics, rights and duties
- (ii) Capacity and ability to apply theoretical knowledge in problem solving.
- (iii) Effective communication skills to negotiate and comprehend different situations
- (iv) Interdisciplinary method of critical thinking
- (v) A general understanding about how knowledge of politics and how that can be applied to benefit the management and/or amendment of problems of mankind.
- (vi) Capability to articulate ideas in appropriate manner.
- (vii) Sensitivity towards diverse contexts, ethnic groups, minorities, marginalized groups and gender issues.

Course Outcomes : Political Science

B.A. Part I

First Paper – Principals of Political Science

Outcomes :- Understanding Political theory is integral and indispensable for a comprehensive and critical study of political science. The course is designed to train a student in the foundational issues of political theory, which is relevant for any in depth study and research.

Second Paper – National Movement and constitution of India

Outcomes :- Acquaintance of the Inspirations of Indian National Movement & Constitution is indispensable for a student to make a sense of Indian Political System. The course is designed to provide a overview of Indian freedom struggle and key concepts of the Indian Constitution to the student, which would evolve him into a conscientious citizen.

B.A. Part II

First Paper :- Western Political Thought

Outcomes :- This course introduces the students to the ancient, medieval and modern political thinking in the West. This would help them understand the manner in which ideas pertaining to ideal state, kingship, duties of the ruler and the ruled, rights, liberty, equality, and justice have evolved over a period of time.

Second Paper :- Comparative Government U.K., U.S.A or

Outcomes :- Politics is the mirror of the society. This paper will help the student in furthering his understanding of the world around. This would help him to appreciate other systems and make him critically analyze the pros and cons of these systems. Comparison is widely used method of scientific knowledge. This would help the student to find out why a certain system is appropriate and suitable to a given society.

B.A. Part III

First Paper :- Indian Political Thought

Outcomes :- This course is to familiarize the students with the larger political and social thinking and ideas in Modern India. Designed in a way to help students engage with various ideological dispensations that came to shape the normative thinking on India.

Second Paper :- Principles of public administration

Outcomes :- Administration being essential to every organization, this course aims to sequent a student with fundamentals of public administration to. This would, provide him an insight regarding the principles of administration in general and help him to bring out the best from existing set up. This would help him to prepare for administrative examinations too.

Third Paper :- International Relation

Outcomes :- This course seeks to equip students the basic tools for understanding International relations. It also introduces major events and developments that have shaped the contemporary international system. It aims to capture the changing dynamics of the international politics by taking up burning and relevant issues which have potential to alter its contours.

M.A. (Political Science)

Program Outcomes :- The expected outcome of the course is to equip students with the concepts, principles, theories and processes studied in Political Science, so as to facilitate their career choices and employment. The course is aimed at shaping the student's perception and outlook on social, economic and political environment of India and beyond.

The course also seeks to develop the analytical abilities, observational skills and decision making faculties of the students so that they will be able to face different challenges of life.

- The student's intellectual capacity has to be increased.
- It helps the students to understand the path of social political and economic development of India.
- It helps the students to understand the key dimensions of Indian administration functioning at different levels.
- Students are able to understand the importance of the political parties in Indian democracy.
- It helps in understanding the nature and significance of political theory.
- It helps students to understand the nature and scope of Private-Public Debate.
- Students are aware of Unity and integrity in the development of the nation.
- It helps in enhancing awareness of nationalism among the students.
- It helps students to understand the nature and scope of public policy.
- Students are able to explain the Importance of Sovereignty in Foreign Policy Decision Making.
- Students understand the various approaches to the study of Comparative Politics.
- It helps students to understand the nature and scope of political sociology.
- Students explain the concept of the Cold War.
- It helps the students to understand the key dimensions of Indian administration functioning at different levels.
- Students are informed about the political socialization by the election since 1951.
- They explain the role of media in the formation of Public Opinion in modern society.
- Students are able to understand the importance of the political parties in Indian democracy.

M.A. I Semester

First Paper :- Western Political thought

Outcomes :- This course introduces the students to the ancient, medieval and modern political thinking in the West. This would help them understand the manner in which ideas pertaining to ideal state, kingship, duties of the ruler and the ruled, rights, liberty, equality, and justice have evolved over a period of time.

Second Paper :- Comparative Politics

Outcomes :- Students understand the various approaches to the study of Comparative Politics. Students understand the importance of constitutionalism in the administration. Explain the difference between the political parties and pressure groups. Students are able to compare developed and undeveloped countries in political perspective.

Third Paper :- Fundamentals of public administration

Outcomes :- It aims to provide interface between public policy and administration in India. The essence of this paper is to appreciate the translation of governing philosophy into programmes and policies. Students will be able to understand Political process as well as Policy formulation process and the difficulties in implementing Programmes and Policies promised in Manifestoes.

Fourth Paper :- Modern Indian Political thought

Outcomes :- Students Discussing the contribution of Nehru in Modern India. To understand the Role of M.N. Roy and Nehru in Economic Transformation and Development of India. Students compare the views of Dr. Ambedkar and Mahatma Gandhi on Democracy. To increase the ability for understanding the Swarajya and Sarvodaya.

M.A. II Semester

First paper :- Contemporary Political theory

Outcomes :- It helps in understanding the nature and significance of political theory. Students understand the Liberal, Marxist and Feminist in Contemporary Perspectives. Students are able to understand the Liberal, Marxist and Feminist in Contemporary Perspectives. Students understand the major key concepts of political Science, like Liberty, Equality, Justice, Rights etc.

Second Paper :- Political ideologies

Outcomes :- There is an increase in libertarian perspective. It helps in enhancing awareness of nationalism among the students. Students can explain the difference between socialism and communism. Students can explain the benefits and disadvantage of fascist ideology.

Third Paper :- International Relations

Outcomes :- Students explain the concept of the Cold War. The ability to review liberalization has to be increased. The study of international politics creates a sense of universal brotherhood among the students. Students are aware of the environmental problems in new world structure.

Fourth Paper :- Human Rights

Outcomes :- This course helps the students to understand the concept of Human Rights and its historical developments. It helps them to grasp the theories of human rights and Emergence of Rights in Political Thinking. They can understand about the Human Rights and International Order, and also about Human Rights and United Nations, Human Rights and Various Conventions. They can know about International Protection of Human Rights. Students can know about New Dimensions of Human Rights. Rights to Development, Human Rights and Peace, Rights of Women, Children and Other disadvantaged groups and also Human Rights and Environment. They get to know about the role played by The Judiciary in exercising and enforcing these rights.

M.A. III Semester

First paper :- Theory of international relations

Outcomes :- This course seeks to equip students the basic tools for understanding International relations. It also introduces major events and developments that have shaped the contemporary international system. It aims to capture the changing dynamics of the international politics by taking up burning and relevant issues which have potential to alter its contours.

Second Paper :- Indian government and politics in India

Outcomes :- Study of the functioning of Indian Democratic System is essential for a comprehensive understanding of the Indian Political System. The course is designed to train & acclimatize the students with the Indian Political System in action and explain the working relationship between citizens and among various units of the state. The student would be able to appreciate the trajectory of the Indian Political system since independence.

Third Paper :- Indian Administration

Outcomes :- It helps the students to understand the key dimensions of Indian administration functioning at different levels. The students understand the importance of the Prime Minister's Office (PMO) in Central Administration. Students can explain the role responsibilities of governor in the administration of the states. It helps to understand the Civil service Reform in the context of Liberalization.

Fourth Paper :- International organization

Outcomes :- The expected outcome of the paper is to familiarize students with the workings and functioning of International Organisations, especially the United Nation and enable them to understand the different issues taken up by the UN.

M.A. IV Semester

First paper :- Foreign policy of India

Outcomes :- This course seeks to equip students, the basic tools for understanding the Foreign Policy Of India. It Also introduces the major events and developments that have shaped the policies of India in terms of other countries. It aims to capture the changing dynamics of the foreign policy by taking up burning and relevant issues which have potential to alter it's contours. It helps the students to study the key features of Indian Foreign Policy and challenges for Indian Foreign Policy. Students can also understand the relation between India and the United Nations and India's role in the NAM and Disarmament. Also, to understand India's Engagement with West Asia, ASEAN, SAARC, South Asia and other Major Powers like The U.S., Japan, China, Russia, Other European Countries etc.

Second Paper :- State politics in India

Outcomes :- It helps the students to understand the path of social and economic development of States. Students can explain the major issues in political process in States. Students can explain the major issues in political process in States. (eg. Cast politics etc.) Students are comparison between the Rural local politics and Urban politics.

Third Paper :- Research Methodology

Outcomes :- Understand some basic concepts of research and its methodologies, select and define appropriate research problem and parameters, identify appropriate research topics and selecting and appropriate which Research design and implementing a research project ,identify and discuss the concepts and procedures of sampling, data collection, analysis and reporting.

Fourth Paper :- International Law

Outcomes :- Introduce the basic concepts and terminology of international law ,provide an overview of the process by which international law is formed and the most important bodies and institutions involved in the international legal system, introduce the international law relating to treaties and to the use of force understand the modes and methods of settlement of international disputes and intervention.

Dr. Vijay Prakash (Associate Professor)

Dr. Hemlata (Assistant Professor)

Dr. Anubha Srivastava (Assistant Professor)

(Political Science Department)

प्रोफेसर
हेमलता नंदन बहुगुणा राजकीय
स्नातकोत्तर महाविद्यालय
वैनी-प्रयागराज